Indications That Immigration Bill Will Be Laid Aside Until Next Congress.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Washington, February 10.—There were indications in the Senate to-day that the Burnett immigration bill, with its literacy test, now before the Senate committee, would be laid aside until the next session of Congress.

It is understood that this movement has the sympathy of President Wilson. The arguments advanced are that while the pending measure was held in abeyance, the President could proceed through diplomatic channels with his task of removing the grievances of foreign governments that are said to be perplexing enough, without the further complication of pending legislation to which other nations are filing protests.

Italy already has protested against certain provisions of the bill, and the antagonistic attifude of the Japanese is well understood. The general subject of immigration and the restriction of the rights of aliens within the United States just now is potent with trouble, from the viewpoint of some of the Senter leaders.

GOOD ROADS BILL PASSES

House Measure Carrying $25,000,000
Now Goes to Senate.

Washington, February 10.—The Shackleford good roads bill to-day was passed by the House, 282 to 42.

The bill which now goes to the Senate appropriates $25,000 to each State, and the remainder among the States on the basis of population, and the number of miles of population, and the number of passed by the House, 282 to 42.

The bill which now goes to the Senate appropriating a dollar for exercising a dollar for exercising a dollar for exercising a dollar for exercising posteriors, and the number of miles of population, and the number of mile

Many of those who voted against the bill explained that their opposition was not to Federal ald in constructing the highways, but to the method proposed in the pending measure.

SECRETARY BRYAN IS HOST

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, February 10.—Secretary of State Bryan gave a luncheon to-day to the members of the Midwinter Bible Conference, now meeting here, at his Calumet Place home.
Grape was the juice de resistance offered to the distinguished divines; all of the guests being preachers, except the host himself. Among the guests were the Rev. G. Campbell Morgan, D.

Trotter, of Chicago, and the Rev. John Henry Jowett, D. D., of New York.

regard to the passage of the act, the balance of power in the conference committee, it was admitted, rests with Senator Echols and Delegate Barley.
Both of these voted for the bill. Senator Echols voted against the bill at the last session, and is believed to favor certain of the amendments rejected by the House.

No Further Amendments.

The make-up of the joint committee was received on all sides with general satisfaction. While its nominal 4 to 2 majority in favor of the enabling act gives little room for encouragement

Wanted for Killing David Wolfe Nearly

Wanted for Killing David Wolfe Nearly a Year Ago.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., February 10.—Charles Catron, charged with killing David L.
Wolfe, nearly one year ago, was arrested by Policeman Wiley Tucker at Black Mountain, in Lee County, yesterday, and lodged in jatl at Jonesville this morning. Catron killed Wolfe on March 11, 1913, on Cumberland Mountain, near Rose Hill, in Lee County, Wolfe, who was a county policeman, was endeavoring to arrest Catron, who was charged with a misdemeanor. The men met on the mountain at the line between the States of Kentucky and Virginia, Catron being on the Kentucky side, and the shooting occurred there. The priscner claims that Wolfe came across the line and attacked him, and that he shot in self-defense. But,
on the other hand, Wolfe's friends claim that Wolfe was on Virginia soil, trying to induce Catron to submit to arrest, and that he was shot unjustifiably, while standing on the Virginia side of the line, by Catron, who was on Kentucky soil. Wolfe lived six hours after the shooting, and made a statement. Catron escaped, and has kept out of the way of the officers ever since.
He was captured while visiting his family, It was said that he was coming in to surrender himself and stand trial.

Baxfer Gets Twelve Months for Assault

Upon School Teacher.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Cape Charles, Va., February 10.—The trial of I. A. Baxter, constable of Capetville District, for assault upon Professor J. A. Stone, principal of Cheriton of two charges, first for assault, and then for disturbing the peace on the school grounds. He was fined $10 and the costs for disturbing the peace and given a sentence of twelve months for assault on Professor Stone.

The assault occurred at noon on Friday, when Baxter became very angry because his son had been punished to horsewhip him. Professor Stone, a tall, sturdy athlete, knocked Baxter down to the schoolhouse with his wife, and contable whipped it out and fired, the builtet just missing Stone's shoulder.

At a late hour this afternoon Baxter was unable to furnish bail, and was in the hands of the sheriff. John E. Nottingham, Jr., was the prosecuting attorney, and Stanley Scott was attorney for the defense.

CLAIMS OF SOUITHERN CITIES

Dance—Theatre People And Notified.

Holding that the public appearance of Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw would be subversive of the morals and good order of the people, Mayor Ainsile yesterday informed the Leath Theatrical Company, that he would forbid her appearing at the Academy of Music this afternoon and to-night, and instructed Major Werner to enforce his order. Notice of his action was sent to W. Greano-Neal and Leo Wise by special more to the schoolhouse with his wife, and the would forbid her appearing at the Academy of Music this afternoon and to-night, and instructed Major Werner to enforce his order. Senator Charged With Improper Conduct Sued for $50,000 Damages.

Oklahoma City, Okla., February 10.—
Trial of the suit instituted by Mrs. Minnie E. Bond, against United States Senator T. P. Gore, of Oklahoma, in which Mrs. Bond charges Senator Gore with improper conduct, and asks that he be required to pay her $50,000 in damages, will begin here to-morrow. The alleged impropriety occurred, Mrs. Bond charges while the two were guests at a Washington hote!

Senator Gore has issued a statement charging his political enemies with having instigated the suit, the allegation of which he denies.

Senator Gore is a candidate for renomination at the primaries to be held in August.

MANNING RELEASED ON BAIL

Police Do Not Allege He Had Prior Knowledge of Wite's Murder.

Newark, February 10.—Charles I. Manning, in jail since Saturday night, after the suicide of twenty-year-old Hazel Herdman, who had shot and killed his wife, to-day was released under $5,000 bail. He is charged with having failed to notify the authorities promptly of the ideatity of his wifes slayer. The police do not allege that Manning had prior knowledge of the crime.

The Herdman girl's motive in killing Mrs. Manning was the latter's refusal to divorce her husband, whom the girl wished to marry.

Attention Thursday night. The principal objection to her appearance is because of the notoriety she obtained during the trial of Harry Thow for the murder of Stanford White. Ministers Made Complaint. Complaint against the play was made first by a committee from the Ministeor Ainslie on Monday and urged that Mrs. Thaw be not allowed to appear because of her connection with the murder of Stanford White and her as-sociation with the slayer. The committee stated that the Ministerial Union believed that her performance would tend to exalt vice and glorify crime. Mayor Ainslie informed the commit-tee that he would take no action until he had received an opinion from the City Attorney as to his authority in such cases, and the matter was referred to City Attorney Pollard for con-

Miss Margaret Wilson Does the "Peggy Drop" at Marshall Reception.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Washington, February 10.—Friends of Miss Margaret Wilson are enthusiastic to-day over the new dance figure she introduced during the dancing at the Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall's reception last night.

They call it the "Peggy Drop," and Miss Wilson, who dances the modern dances with graceful abandon, adds the finishing touch of the drop to them. It comes at the end of a whirl, and is much deeper and slower than the ordinary dip, and resembles somewhat the old-fashioned curtsey in the minute.
